Happy 2019!

I hope you enjoyed Christmas and the many gifts that God bestows on us.

The year is flying by and soon we will be halfway through the school year. In the meantime, here is what is happening in our classroom.

Please turn in your tickets for Hibernation. Families are required to sell two tickets. This is also your LAST CHANCE to participate in a fundraiser for tuition credit this school year. We need volunteers. Please sign up to help out.

Religion

We are now studying the book of Exodus. Moses will teach us a great deal about our journeys in faith.

We all have prayer journals and have used them this year. With Confirmation approaching, I have invited the confirmation students to bring the red journals (that they were given in October) to school to be used daily.
