MHRS Parents -- Appreciation and Thanks

"God is everything that is good. All life's pleasures and comforts are sacramental; they are God's hands touching us." --St. Julian of Norwich

These words, penned in the 14th Century, remind us that all good comes from God. Here at MHRS, we see good--God's work--on a daily basis: in the actions and words of our students and staff and in the generous deeds and words of volunteers and benefactors. As we approach Thanksgiving, please know that all of us at MHRS recognize the GOOD that so many in our school community do to make the school thrive. As always, we appreciate the financial backing of benefactors and those who support events, such as this fall's successful Marathon. Additionally, we appreciate the ongoing window projects as well as a hand in carrying out this fall's office renovation, summer preschool project, as well as the school's social events. These efforts, and others like them, improve the very quality of our building and create a welcoming, safe home for school life. Thank you, too, to our cherished volunteers who devotedly share their talents and help make MHRS the warm community of learning that it is. Happy Thanksgiving!

MHRS's "Old Fashioned Christmas" - Dec. 14

MHRS is sponsoring an Old Fashioned Christmas on Tuesday, Dec. 14, from 5:00 - 7:00 p.m. in the school cafeteria. Join us for an evening of creating Christmas cards, Christmas tree ornaments and, of course, decorating Christmas cookies. You will also get to keep the ornaments.

Face painting, food, and beverages also will be available at no cost. Just return the form to your classroom teacher to let us know how many are going to attend. All MHRS families are encouraged to attend. Students will need to be accompanied by an adult.

If you happen to know of a family that would be interested in attending this event and who have school-aged children that you feel would be interested in attending MHRS, please let the school know and we will send them a special invitation.

Hibernation Celebration - Saturday, February 5, 2022.

Tickets for the Hibernation Celebration have been sent home. MHRS is asking each family to sell at least 4 tickets to this event. If you would like more tickets, please call the school.

As always, please feel free to email or call me with any thoughts or concerns.

Thank you -

Mr. Vondracek, Principal - gvondracek@mosthrs.org

 Please have your child(ren) dressed for the colder weather. A warm coat, hat and gloves/mittens are a must and boots, along with snow pants, when there is any snow. Unless it is raining or the temperature/wind chill is below zero, students go outside for recess each day. Band students also should be dressed appropriately for the walk to & from TCU Middle School.
