4 days left...(Is that really possible???)

As our school year nears the end I wanted to take the time to tell you thank you for being such an AMAZING group of students and parents! I feel so blessed to have such an awesome crew!!!

Great job to all for a fabulous concert! The kids did a great job singing and it was a joy to watch! Also, it was great seeing so many at the Summer kick-off event Friday night! (It might have been a bit chilly, but it was a great turn out!)

This week we will focus on wrapping up a few units, wrapping up our last novel and cleaning out our lockers/desks. (Hopefully most have taken the majority of their "extras" home as I have been reminding them for a couple of weeks.)

I did give the class their end of the year gift last week, along with the letter from me. I gave it to them early as I know some students like to use their bag to put extras in it for the picnic and just in case something changed with my situation I wanted to make sure I got it to them!

I will be taking lunch count on Tuesday for those who would like school to provide a lunch on the last day of school. Please make sure to discuss with your child if they will be bringing their own lunch to the picnic or having a school provided cold lunch (PB & J).

Here are some important dates/events to keep in mind this week:

Monday 23rd- students should wear their RED class shirts as we will be taking an all school picture right away in the morning.

Tuesday 24th - 8th grade graduation at night (feel free to come and support our 8th graders as they graduate and begin their next chapter)

Thursday 26th- last day of school- all school picnic, we are hosting Mass @ 8:30 - students with reading parts got their readings last week, report cards go home (make sure to check backpacks before putting them away for the summer! 😊)

Please let me know if you have any questions! Again it has been an honor being part of your child's educational journey this year!! =)
